

Prof. Peter Hoyer

Prof. Hoyer was elected in 1998 as director and chair of the Department of Paediatric Nephrology at the University of Essen and was executive director of the University Children's Hospital Essen from 2006 to 2020. In addition to numerous academic positions at the medical faculty, he was a board member and treasurer of ESPN, president of GPN (German Society for Paediatric Nephrology), president of CESP and first president of EAP, chair of the Committee on Education and Structures of the German Academy of Paediatrics. He is author and co-author of more than 380 publications in his main fields of interest, i.e. paediatric nephrology and liver and kidney transplantation. Major awards include the Golden Kidney of ESPN, the Honorary Membership of ESPN and the Children's Aid Organ Transplantation- united charity award.