

Dr Pierre-André Michaud

P-A Michaud, is honorary professor in adolescent medicine and health of the faculty of biology & medicine of Lausanne, Switzerland. Currently retired, he has created in 1998 and been in charge for fifteen years of a Multidisciplinary Unit for Adolescent Health at the University hospital of Lausanne. He has published more than 250 articles and book chapters and is the founder of a training program in adolescent medicine and health which is worldwide recognized (www.euteach.com). He currently works as an independent collaborator for WHO, UNICEF and UNFPA.