

Dr Miguel Vieira Martins

Miguel is a Fellow in Pediatric Oncology at the Portuguese Institute of Oncology, in Lisbon, Portugal. Miguel has pursued a career in Child Health with an interest in Oncology/Hematology. Collaborative work has been a thriving part of his career. He serves as Vice-Chair for the Young European Academy of Paediatrics. Miguel has also been active in translational research having graduated in 2017 from the Harvard Medical School – PT Clinical Scholars Research Training Program. Otherwise, he is passionate about medical volunteering and has been involved in several humanitarian projects in Child Healthcare (Madagascar, Angola, São Tomé and Príncipe Islands).