

Dr Francesca Tirelli

Francesca Tirelli, MD, born on 03/03/1989 is a Specialist in Pediatrics, working as Consultant in Pediatric Rheumatology and Attending Physician in Pediatric Acute Care at the Department of Woman and Child Health of the University Hospital of Padova. Dr. Tirelli recently completed her PhD Course in Developmental Medicine and Health Planning Sciences at the University of Padova and will defend her thesis in June 2023. She dedicates to both clinical and translation research mainly in the field of childhood rheumatic diseases, with particular focus on pediatric Scleroderma Syndromes.