

Prof. Ann De Guchtenaere

In 2011, Prof. Dr. Ann De Guchtenaere got her PhD in the field of Paediatric Nephrology at the University of Ghent, and being educated in France and USA, she became Medical Chief of the Zeepreventorium De Haan, a Medical Rehabilitation Center for 120 chronically ill children in 2013. Being an associate Professor for General Paediatrics since 2014, she returned as full-time staff member to the Ghent University Hospital in 2022.

Her field of interest is General Paediatrics, non-communicable diseases, Down syndrome, chronic pain and Adverse Childhood Experiences. She (co-)authors an average of 5 international publications per year.

She was President of the Flemish Paediatric Society (2012-2018), is Secretary General of the European Academy of Paediatrics since 2019 and the current President of the Belgian Academy of Paediatrics.